

Heladio Adame | WEB/GRAPHIC DESIGNER

My name is Heladio Adame. I'm 42, and I am a Designer from Orange County, California. I studied at The Art Institute in OC, where I developed a keen understanding of design and creative thinking. I majored in Web Design and Interactive Media, where I gained a diverse skill set that includes graphic design, photography, illustration, digital typography, web and interface design, as well as video editing and storyboarding. With over a decade of experience in graphic design and front-end web development, I've had the privilege of collaborating with well-known brands such as Waba Grill, Chronic Tacos, San Manuel Indian Bingo Casino, Leg Avenue, and Pick Up Stix, bringing their visions to life through creative and impactful digital experiences.
